Organized by: NSS Cell, University of Gour Banga

Date: 13 August 2026

Time: 12:00 Noon onwards

Venue: University of Gour Banga

As part of: 'Har Ghar Tiranga' Campaign (9 August 2026 – 17 August 2026)

The NSS Cell, University of Gour Banga, organized a Freedom Movement Quiz and Essay Competition on 13 August 2026 from 12:00 Noon onwards as part of the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' Campaign, being observed from 9 August 2026 to 17 August 2026.

The programme was organized with the primary objective of sensitizing and engaging students in matters relating to the Indian freedom movement, the sacrifices of freedom fighters, the significance of the National Flag, and the values of patriotism, national unity and integrity. The initiative was also intended to promote awareness among the youth about the historical journey of India's struggle for independence and to encourage a sense of responsibility towards the nation.

As part of the programme, a Freedom Movement Quiz was conducted to assess and enhance the participants' knowledge of significant events, movements, personalities and milestones associated with India's freedom struggle. The participants took part in the quiz with considerable enthusiasm and demonstrated keen interest in the history and heritage of the nation.

An Essay Competition was also organized to provide students with an opportunity to articulate their views and understanding of India's freedom movement and its enduring relevance. The competition encouraged participants to reflect upon the contributions and sacrifices of the freedom fighters and the importance of preserving the ideals of freedom, democracy, unity and national integrity.
